

How to become an AIAM Member

The Italian Association of AgroMeteorology is open to all people who operate in the agrometeorological sector, and who agree with our aims.

If you want to become an Individual Member of AIAM, you just need to fill out and send following documents:

- Membership Request (.doc , .pdf)
- Personal File (.doc , .pdf)

to the email address: segreteria@agrometeorologia.it .

Moreover, the Italian Association of AgroMeteorology provides the possibility of becoming Supporting Members to public bodies, private companies, research institutes, scientific associations and all other organizations.

Also in this case, it is enough to fill out and send following documents:

- Supporting Membership Request (.doc , .pdf)
- Company File (.doc , .pdf)

to the email address: segreteria@agrometeorologia.it .

In either case, once you get acceptance from the Directive Council, you just need to make the payment and send via email a copy of the payment receipt.

AIAM membership fee for the year 2015 is fixed at 80 € for Individual Membership and at 350 € for Supporting Membership.

Payment can be made on postal giro account IT 87 K076 0101 6000 0004 3686203 in the name of Associazione Italiana di AgroMeteorologia.

Remember that AIAM membership includes a yearly subscription to the Italian Journal of Agrometeorology.

Moreover, all Supporting Members can display their logo on our website and have the right to attend the AIAM annual Congress with an exhibition stand.
